

iSeries Navigator Introduction

Duration: One Day

Prerequisites: Basic Overview and PDM. Students should have some familiarity with iSeries.

Audience: This course is designed for system operators and administrators who want to use a GUI client application to manage their iSeries server.

Description: This course examines the wide variety of tools and wizards packed into this product. Topics include security management, backup management and many others.

Course Content:

- The install process
- Installing service packs
- Setup
- Functions
- Management Central